

Skills and Core Competencies

- Seven years experience developing and maintaining web applications and functional mock ups utilizing HTML 4 and 5, CSS 2 and 3, Javascript, jQuery, ASP Classic, ASP.NET 2.0 and 3.5 (C#); focusing on flexibility, user friendliness, accessibility, and search engine marketing.
- Five years experience designing web site wireframes, site designs, and graphical enhancements using Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator.
- Experience managing small project specific teams including project planning, resource management, and needs assessment.
- Experience setting up, configuring, deploying and managing Subversion systems to facilitate code versioning, change management, and QA/Production release support.
- Fluent in Swedish and conversational German.

Notable Achievements

- Alumni - National Youth Leadership Forum on Technology in Silicon Valley – 2003.
- Alumni - International Scholar Laureate Delegation of Technology in China – 2005.
- Distinguished Student Award for the Academic Year 2007 – 2008 from the Earl N. Phillips School of Business Information Systems at High Point University.
- Phi Beta Delta Honor Society member – High Point University – 2008.
- Dean's List – High Point University – 2008.

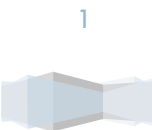

Professional Experience

A3 IT Solutions

04 / 2006 to Present

User Experience Designer

- Responsible for coding graphic user interfaces according to design documents and written specifications using HTML, CSS, and Javascript; ensuring design and functional continuity between platforms and browsers.
- Designing site wireframes, mock ups, and graphical enhancements.
- Responsible for developing custom jQuery and Javascript scripts to aid in user friendliness, interactivity, and accessibility; extending the functionality of third party software.
- Responsible for code versioning, release and change management using Subversion.
- Researching and developing coding standards and documentation as well as process improvement.
- Planned and developed base infrastructure to speed up design and build processes to cut cost and improve efficiency. The system has cut development hours by roughly 40 hours per project as well as allows the company to update client web applications when new technology becomes available.

Spin Communications (later Definition 6)

09 / 2003 to 10 / 2005

Web Development Intern

- Responsible for coding, updating and maintaining websites using HTML, CSS and Javascript.
- Responsible for creating, updating basic graphical elements.

Education

High Point University

Graduated: 2008

- Bachelor of Science Degree
 - o Major: Computer Information Systems.
 - o Major: Business Administration with a concentration in Management.
 - o Minor: German.

South West Guilford High School

Graduated: 2004

- High School diploma.

